9. Junior Report TB read the report supplied by Adam Curtis. With the winter in full swing and a poor run of weather the junior golf activity has been quiet. I have postponed the Tri golf sessions until March when it warms up as it's too cold for 4- and 5-year olds to be outside. The two sessions for the older groups continue to show good numbers even with the poor weather which is promising. School coaching at St Petrocs has come to an end as of last week after 13 weeks of coaching and I look forward to starting a new term with Bude Junior School in the new year where I will be teaching 3 of their age groups with over 30 kids attending each session. I will be trying to think of ideas over the winter such as a 'Junior Get into Golf Weekend' in an effort to expand our growing junior section ready to hit the ground running in spring.
